Showcasing the unique personalities of small hillside vineyards from Pritchard Hill, Oakville and Rutherford, our 2001 Napa Valley Cabernet delivers a complex array of ripe berry, cocoa, tobacco and sweet oak spice aromas. The wine is concentrated, serious and dark with a core of black fruit and shadings of tar and briar, becoming chocolaty and long on the palate with mouth-coating tannins.

“Smooth, rich and concentrated, with a tasty core of wild berry, blackberry, plum and mocha, all neatly tailored, delivering a wonderful gush of fruit, spice and jazzy oak.”

- James Laube, Wine Spectator
