The baseball equivalent of a grand slam, Alec's 2004 bottling is an out-of-the-park delicious blend of 70% Syrah and 30% Cabernet Sauvignon. Packed with wild blackberry and seductive, cedar-laced oak and spices, the wine has a deeply fruited core enhanced with violets, vanilla and cocoa. Rich and thickly textured with great weight and balance, the wine is framed with chewy, chocolately tannins.

"Wonderfully rich and flavorful, with a broad array of supple plum, blackberry and wild berry fruit that fans out on the palate, supported by ripe, supple tannins and a long, elegant, graceful finish."

- James Laube, Wine Spectator
