Our 2006 Sonoma Chardonnay from Dutton and Ritchie vineyards is crafted from gnarly old Russian River Valley vines in deep, sandy loam soils. Ripe citrus and apricot fruit aromas are overlain with sexy sandalwood spice. Framed in smoky, toasty oak and loaded with ripe fruitful flavors, the wine is balanced, rich, and persistent, with trademark Meyer lemon zest on the finish.

“Fresh, lively citrus, green apple, pear and melon form an elegant band of flavors, with shades of hazelnut and nutmeg lingering in the background, joined by a hint of marshmallow.”

- James Laube, Wine Spectator
